Halal Statement

To the best of our knowledge, based on our manufacturing processes and the ingredients used, the products produced at our facility are free from pork, pork by-products, and alcohol, and do not contain ingredients derived from animals not slaughtered in accordance with Islamic law.

Our production processes are designed to prevent cross-contamination with non-Halal materials through dedicated equipment cleaning procedures, controlled ingredient sourcing, and documented Good Manufacturing Practices (GMP).

This statement is provided solely based on our internal review of materials and processes and does not represent an official Halal certification.
